Pretty girl
Wreckin' bar
Ra ra ra ra Here you are.
Blowing up 'bout
twice a night
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Here I am.
The angles came and they stole Fitzgerald.
The Evening News and the Morning Herald.
I know they're not from very far,
but now they've found a box of bla-de-shwar.
Break them in
you can sing
Hey hey hey hey
Yeah you're in.

I can see them
big below
No no no no
its funny though
Let's go home I think we oughta.
I know you're your mother's daughter
Well brought up and running with me but I haven't got the time for you.

Eager boy know we supposey
This is what you get when you turn your back.
A clear blue sky now turning black.
