I got a story
bout all these rats
all the sewer rats
all these gun rats
im talkin bout all these gold diggen rats
these hood rats
my grandmothers a rat
she's just an old school rat my mothers a rat
she's just a high class rat my sisters rats
she's just a middle class rat my cousins rats
they just low class rats im tired of rats tryin to get into my boyz pockets im tired of rats tryin to ride around in my cars im tired of rats talkin all that jibber jabber to their friends

but ond day these rats are gonna be straight no diss to rats
cuz there are some rats that i love too my message to you today is admit the rat in you to all women admitt the rat in you admit the rat in you
admit the rat in you
admit the rat in you
