Hsss ugh
I gotta be real wit' you baby
Just gotta let you know
You've got the love that I want [That's right]
The love that I need [Word is bond it's butta baby] [Check this out]
You're like my homie my shorty you've shown me so many things
And you're so special to me
We been kickin' it for a while your sexy smile Prima Donna style
Ooh you're drivin' me so wild (so wild)
Ain't got no reputation educated conversation
And, ooh, you've got that bomb love makin'
It's more than sexual, this love you know, is proper dough
It's, oh, so, so incredible
You've got the love that I want (The love you want)
And you've got the love that I need (The love you need) Girl, it's so smooth and so creamy [You know, you know]
You've got that butta love, baby [You've got that butta love, baby]
You've got the love that I want (The love you want)
And you've got the love that I need (The love you need)
Girl, it's so smooth and so creamy
You've got that butta love, oh, baby You've got it goin' on, word is bond, sundress with platforms
Feet pedicure with no corns
You've got that sex appeal, on the real, so sure Soft hands, French manicure, no makeup, you're so pure
You don't be trippin' when I'm kickin' it with my niggas
You don't be questionin' where I been and what I did You got that confidence, sexiness, thickness, that bomb shit
And I like it ohhhhh.
When I'm chillin' with my homies [Think about it]
I think about you only
[You know what I want] You got what I want [You know what it is] It's that [Ooh] butta love

[And I will, I will] I'll meet you at your crib, baby
'Cause I'll rock your world, I'll rock you, girl Butta babe, butta, babe
You've got the love that I want (The love you want) You've got the love that I need, yeah (The love you need)
Girl, it's so smooth and so creamy
You've got that butta love, baby
You've got the love that I want (The love you want) [You know you do]
And you've got the love that I need [That love, that love] (The love
You Need) [Oh, yeah]
Girl, it's so smooth and so creamy [So smooth and] You've got that butta love, oh, baby [You've got that,

You've got those sexy eyes, enticing thighs, you make me rise
(You've got that love I wanna try, send my tongue up Spine)

You've got that perfect shape, the love you make, I scream your name (Wanna take all your clothes off, sex you till the song goes off)
I like your everything, your navel and your pinky ring (Sexy from head to toe, girl, never gonna let you go)
You got that confidence, sexiness, thickness that bomb
