Roll the dice, play your cards
Break the rules, that's who you are
Whoever said play it safe, never played the game
So many players, but too many pawns
Too many judges say what's right or wrong
But let them jump into the fire if they want to play
Play

'Cause it's a deadly game
That we play as we live our lives
When we say what is on our minds
Play it now before the game is over

Two simple rules the devil hands us
Make your mistakes but no second chances
Every time that you stand up is Another chance to fall, fall

'Cause it's a deadly game
That we play as we live our lives
When we say what is on our minds
Play it now before the game is over

'Cause it's a deadly game
That we play as we live our lives
When we say what is on our minds
Play it now before the game is over

Judgement day, calls in all markers
Hounds of Hell, it's getting darker
As they carry you away, you wonder
What went wrong, wrong

'Cause it's a deadly game
That we play as we live our lives
When we say what is on our minds
Play it now before the game is over

'Cause it's a deadly game
That we play as we live our lives
When we say what is on our minds
Play it now before the game is over
