"The Dawn of Your Happiness Is Rising"

You lay awake
Beside me troubled and afraid
Be calm, you're safe
The light of day just hours away

The dawn of your happiness is rising
kiss to the horizon
The dawn of your happiness, still rising Still rising, banishing the dark thoughts you have been hiding
inside of you

Did you think you're the only one whose depravation's hard to phase?

Breath in and change your worries when we turn the page

kiss to the horizon
The dawn of your happiness, still rising
Still rising, banishing the dark
thoughts you have been hiding
inside of you
