I'll make this short and sweet
A love letter I've been writing
Are you ready to read?
'Cause if I could give two reasons

Tonight I will breathe for the both of us
And tonight I will sing for the both of us

We're gonna shake
Like chocolate milk tonight
And then we'll wake in the morning
And do it all again

Just take my hand, don't let it go
Hold as tight as you need
To keep from slipping away from me
'Cause feeling is believing

Baby all I need I got right here
Baby all I need I got right here
And you are the one for me
Yeah all for me, all for me
And you are the one for me
