

Boyish Good Looks "Expectations"

Visit "Expectations" on MotoLyrics.com

There's someone waiting
Outside your bedroom door
Oh what to do with all these expectations?
He's waiting on you
With these expectations in your mind

And I just want to love you tonight
I just want to be right by your side
Can we lay here all night long?
Fulfilling everything we want
Forever and ever

Without a knock
He enters in the room
As she runs toward him
And she grabs ahold
Without the expectations of anything except for him
