Two restless hearts
The night's still young
He's trying hard
But her minds not on him
And he wants attention from her
He might as well tie the noose
'Cause she's just the girl to make him lose it

Baby you're pleasure's my aim
I'll place the blame on you
Every single time

I can't shake the thought of you

If you only knew
This was for real
The way I feel
I hope you don't forget my name
When I say that this day
It's all about you
