Hello baby
how was your day at work I bet you're tired so just sit down and take a load off for awhile here's a little back rub tell me when it gets to be too much by the way supper's almost done

Oh and I know you're probably thinking that I've done something wrong 'cause it's been so long since I've done anything for you like this baby it's just that I've finally had a day off to get caught up with the one that I love

I'll do anything you want do anything you ask to try to make things easier you're wish is my command I'll do anything you want whatever you desire and I know it may seem odd but if you ask me why I'll tell you why no particular reason hey
'cause I just felt like doin' somethin' nice for you today let's go upstairs let me show you what's next I hope you like it it's a bubble bath and some wine by candlelight I'll sponge you down with kisses then we can do the business if you want the night's still young baby baby you've got my undivided attention there will be no interruptions I've unplugged the phone the nights all yours

I've been so busy and perhaps it's my fault but now that I have got some time off I'll do anything you want

There's no woman in this world who can do all the things you do for me I can never measure up to you girl but please believe that I'll try harder to make things easier to prove I'm worth your time and make sure I keep you mine oh...
