Iâ€™ve had the prettiest girlfriends
That youâ€™ve ever seen
Some were smart and some were sweet and some were in between
One of them got famous
Donâ€™t know about the rest

But Lynnie was the best

Saw her every day at work
I drove deliveries then Weâ€™d stand and hold each other
For a minute or two or ten
Thatâ€™s all we ever did
Never coalesced

Lynnie was the best

Just a plain girl ... ordinary
Always a happy smile
Weâ€™d hold each other together for a long long while

Couldnâ€™t see ourselves together
Different in every way
Some would say I was too respectful
But I let her slip away
She and I just had some fun
As you might have guessed

Lynnie was the best
