She has closed the closet door
And the door to the hall
She sings songs that she has made up
Ever since she was small
Terry sings
Terry sings
Terry sings tonight now
Terry sings
Terry sings
Terry sings tonight now

Da da da da da da da da da da
Da da da da da
Da da da da da da da da da da
Da da da da da

Moon is shining ever brightly
Terry hides her car
Puts her clothes behind a park bench remembers where they are
Terry swims
Terry swims
Terry swims tonight now
Terry swims
Terry swims
Terry swims tonight now

Da da da da da da da da da da
Da da da da da
Da da da da da da da da da da
Da da da da da
Terry sleeps
Terry sleeps
Terry sleeps tonight now
Terry sleeps
Terry sleeps
Terry sleeps tonight now
