"Your Daddy"

You don't have to live like this
Dogs barking, all these dirty people
You could go anywhere: Hollywood, Europe...
With all the money you need

...

But your Daddy can write right here
But your Daddy can write
But your Daddy can write right here

Wouldn't you like to live the good life
Honest, it's like you could fly
You'll have a stylist, and a ... uh ... dentist
You'll be so happy, believe me

But your Daddy can write right here

But your Daddy can write
But your Daddy can write right here

We can go right now if you want
Yeah, just get some clothes and things
And get your daddy, he has to sign this
We'll give him something too

But your Daddy can write right here
But your Daddy can write
But your Daddy can write right here
