"Call Me"

Call me and I will come,
See how I will run,
It's been so many years, but,
You're still the one,
Just call my name and I will come

Ready as I can be,
And oh you'll send for me,
And I'll be waiting here so patiently,
I'm ready now as I can be,

Maybe I'm a fool,
Loving you, like I do,

But I miss you every day,

And I see you in everything,
You're every song I hear and every word I say,
I miss you more every day,

"Instrumental"

Maybe I'm a fool,
But hope is all I have to hold on to,

So, call me and I will come,
See how I will run,
It's been so many years, but,
You're still the one,
Just call my name and I will come,
Just call my name and I will come.
