I won't say your name
I won't call you up or come around
Try to stay or let you down
I will only disappear
And I won't leave a trace of where I've been Loose my head or make a scene
And I won't say your name
I won't say a word about the restlessness I heard between the lines of everything I heard you say

And I won't say a thing about the way that you can bring me to my knees with just a single look my way
And I won't say your name
And I won't tell a soul about how much I want to hold you in my arms and never let you slip away
And I won't tell or talk about the way that I have thought about, how much I want you every single day I'll just say good-bye
And I won't cry until I am alone
Won't pick up the phone
And I won't say your name.
