"Season Of Love"

You've been there all the time right in front on my eyes but I didn't see you

And now, I shake like a leaf now, I can't seem to speak whenever you're near me

I'm ready for a season of love I'm ready for a change to come and I do believe I've been waiting my whole life alone just for you to come along

Now I'm here with you and out of the blue something you....

but I, I can't explain why just like the rain I can't keep from falling

I'm ready for a season of love
I'm ready for a change to come
and I do believe I've been waiting my whole life alone
just for you to come along

right in front on my eyes
