It's hard to say I love you
When we live so far away
It's hard to make you happy
When we need each other all day
But there's one thing I know
I don't wanna lose your smile and be alone
I know you have to think
About this situation now
I live a thousand miles from you
But I'm asking just to try
And there's one thing I know
I don't wanna lose your smile and be alone
Please let me stay another day
You know I'm coming home tonight
And everything will be alright

I found that someone and it's you
I found that someone and I hope you love me too
