I saw you crying in the hall
And I realized that he was gone
I asked you about the reason why
You told me everything's all right
But then you started touching my hand,
I thought a chance like this won't come again
It was three days to promnight so
Do you want me by your side
And I know I shouldn't write this song
Cause you won't talk from now on
But let me try to say
I need to explain what I felt that day
You're my promnight queen

You're my promnight queen
Yes you asked me out
I feel happy now
I don't understand what's going around
You're my promnight queen
When you kiss my neck
I think I'm getting mad
And I wanna give you anything you need

I got my car I'm feeling fine
I'm gonna have some fun this fuckin' night
I'm driving slow down on main street
The radio's giving some good beat
I'm at your house you're coming down,
The magic in the air's already come
I see your dress and I say hey
I take your hand we're going away
