I know you got a man, I know he treats you right
I know you need excitement, wanna live your life
I know the things you want, you ain't gotta lie
You don't gotta leave girl, you can spend the night

Good morning mean goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
Good morning mean goodbye, yeah
I said good morning mean goodbye, goodbye,
goodbye
Good morning mean goodbye, yeah

Damn, come and stand with a real man
The one you with is a fucking bitch, I can feel that You want a man who gonna respect you and protect you
And I'll see your independence isn't neglectful
I let you do your thing, girl, I know my place
I love the way my shirt is hanging off your shoulder blade
Penny line below your waist
I know he hurt you, but baby, I'll be your Novocain
The way your thighs shaking around my head, girl, I know you came
I know you stressing and wondering why I '
'Cause you tryina be my girl and I can't commit to friendship
You say I hurt the ones I love and don't respect them
If I hurt the ones I love is just to test them
For everything a test, not everybody passes
All my ex-es bad so a bad bitch is average
Playing hard to get? It's better with a challenge
I promise, if I want it, I can have it

I know you got a man, I know he treats you right
I know you need excitement, wanna live your life
I know the things you want, you ain't gotta lie
You don't gotta leave girl, you can spend the night

Good morning mean goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
Good morning mean goodbye, yeah
I said good morning mean goodbye, goodbye,

Good morning mean goodbye, yeah

Yeah, you hit him up when I'm with you like 'babe, I miss you'
You talk to him while I strip you and send him texts while I kiss you
You playing both sides, it's cool with me
'Cause you ain't my girl, I know your ass ain't made a fool of me
You can see that you and me done had our share of women
You and me be sharing women
You be kissing on a girl, you tearing in it
You ain't comparing him and me, we after different things
I just wanna give you orgasms, he tryina give you rings
My favorite thought of you is sitting in that loft with you
You show up in my crib in Louis Vuittons and shit he bought for you
I'm in the car when he calling and you just text him back
Begging me to fuck you raw just to disrespect his ass
Ain't no commitment, you my temporary chick
Right? 'Cause I got problems you might temporary fix Right? No expectations baby, you know what it is
The night belong to us, but mama, you belong to him

I know you got a man, I know he treats you right
I know you need excitement, wanna live your life
I know the things you want, you ain't gotta lie
You don't gotta leave girl, you can spend the night

Good morning mean goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
Good morning mean goodbye, yeah
I said good morning mean goodbye, goodbye,
Good morning mean goodbye, yeah

I know you got a man, I know he treats you right
I know you need excitement, wanna live your life
I know the things you want, you ain't gotta lie
You don't gotta leave girl, you can spend the night

Good morning mean goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
Good morning mean goodbye, yeah
I said good morning mean goodbye, goodbye,
Good morning mean goodbye, yeah
