I'm tired of being lonely
Even when you're near
I'm tired of always fighting - so tired

The years have passed by
And yet we're still together tonight
Arguing, bickering
Where did all the love we share go

Please come back
Please come back
Love our love
Please come back
I'm tired of always hiding
Even from myself
I'm tired of all the lies we've told us - so tired

The years have passed by
Yet we're still alone tonight
Words of pain, tears of hate
When did all the love we share die
