[c'est bon (it's good) me fais du bien (make me feel good)]

Baby Goodnight [x5]

(Yeah) Should I draw the image of her sleeping?
Don't be shy anymore,
You're already my girl.
Even if it's not clear, it's that way to me.
You're more than I deserve.
You're perfect, thanks for being by my side baby
My lady~ (I'll always love you, girl)

A ray of light trickles in through the cracks of the dim balcony
A perfect silhouette, this calming night's aroma is like a coconut scented oil,
Just like the day I confessed to you, do you remember?
I whispered in your ears, come closer, you're too fine
You're like a freckled crimson strawberry
An I become the whipping cream that wraps around it

Know how much I love you beautiful girl
Like a picture of a child to me
Frozen before a shadow
There's nothing I can do
With a shaky voice, with dry lips
Come a step closer to me and tenderly whisper
The surrounding firelight dances
I always dream of you

Baby Goodnight [x5]

(Don't wanna say goodbye
Baby Goodnight
I don't wanna say goodbye
Baby Goodnight) [x2]

When the darkness of the black night finds us,

Those beautiful eyes closed and drifting off
I sit by your bed and caress your hair

Looking at your face, I want to convey my love
I wish time would stop like this
You are just so beautiful

I'd be familiar with everything
Your cute question
It's just beautiful, the great power of love
Our lips redden
Our eyes meet, yes a bit deeper

You're my beautiful girl
You light the fire in my soul
Refreshing mint, the same hint
Teach me the answer, sweet girl

You're my beautiful girl
You light the fire in my soul
Refreshing mint, the same hint
Refreshing mint, hint
The answer is you
