We're broken down, we're nowhere bound
I'm sorry Newport News we won't be seeing you around

We're twenty two and a half hours south from home
Now there's nowhere else, there's nowhere left to go

We're stranded in the sunshine state
But we'll find a way to get through the day
Just know that everything's okay
We've landed in this long heated debate
But we'll be just fine nothing on my mind
I'm just glad that we made it out alive

What the hell were we thinking
Lucks never been a good friend
So why do we depend on him
He always seems to screw us over in the end

But we made it out alive
At least we made it out alive
