These heartaches now are on their way
What makes you want to be that way?
You cheated on me and you lied
You put teardrops in my eyes

I found out what they say is true
I hope someday that you'll be blue
And then you'll know dear why I cry
With these teardrops in my eyes

I heard the rumors over town
That someday you'd let me down
I'll turn my head when gossip flies
'Cause it puts teardrops in my eyes

I found out what they say is true
I hope someday that you'll be blue
And then you'll know dear why I cry
With these teardrops in my eyes

I never thought you'd let me down
But now at last I understand
You broke our promises and vows
You'll have to pay for it somehow

I found out what they say is true
I hope someday that you'll be blue
And then you'll know dear why I cry
With these teardrops in my eyes

I found out what they say is true
I hope someday that you'll be blue
And then you'll know dear why I cry
With these teardrops in my eyes
