You're such a greedy bastard
You're such a broken king that you
Don't know when you've already won
You wanna conquer everything

You're such a greedy bitch
You're such a hopeless queen that you Don't know when you've been overthrown
you wanna fight for everything

The last castle fell, he wrote it in song She got the whole world to control, and hold in your palms
now that you got the (jew star?) hows it gonna go?
you wanna rip out a bruised heart and swallow it whole?
you wanna flip out and move on, find a new home you wanna kick out the new start and call her on the phone like...

"THERE'S NO WAY YOU'LL EVER FIND ANOTHER LIKE ME,
IF YOUR NEW MAN DON'T LIKE IT, THEN I'LL COME OVER AND FIGHT HIM!"

pshhh, let go..
why you try to keep her in a neck hold?
when every question she asks is answered with a HELL
NO!
What you tryin to do?
Man it doesnt make a difference if shes lying to you Besides...you're the one who wanted outta there too now youre so damn jealous you dunno what to do so...you can hold on or sink with the ship and keep pulling it
pulling it
pullin down....

You're such a greedy bastard
youre such a broken king that you
dont know when youve already won
you wanna conquer everything

You're such a greedy bitch
you're such a hopeless queen that you
don't know when you've been overthrown
you wanna fight for everything

The last petals picked Your romeo's dead
you need to pick yourself up and start living instead you need to stop giving in to all the shit that he says makes you feel like a bitch when you try to forget...
Girl...
Stop thinkin he'll be comin back around for ya open up the car door and drive it outta town with ya I hate to break it to ya lady, but it's over so you can cancel the search for your four leafed clover
Cuz aint no amount of wishin gonna bring him back aint no amount of givin gonna change his tracks Aint no amount of cinnamon gonna sweeten the crap that you've been taken from this dude tryna pretend that you're happy so...
Guess you're lookin for the sunshine and progress waitin in the rain for your prince in your prom dress you can hold on and sink with the ship and keep pulling it
pulling it
pullin down....

You're such a greedy bastard
you're such a broken king that you
don't know when you've already won
you wanna conquer everything

You're such a greedy bitch
you're such a hopeless queen that you
you wanna fight for everything
