At the start there was love
And life began in Him
Creation falls, Creator gives
The promise of a better day

We are not there yet

Let it come, let it come in
Love is here and love is coming
Heaven is breaking open
Heaven is breaking open

Love came down and hope was found
And life began again
A brand new start
Yeah, a brand new start
The promise of a better day

We are not there yet

Let it come, let it come in
Love is here and love is coming
Heaven is breaking open
Heaven is breaking open

Love came down and hope was found
And now we're waking up to a brighter day
Love came down and hope was found
And now we're waking up to a brighter day

Love came down and hope was found
(Oh, brighter day, brighter day)
And now we're waking up to a brighter day

Love came down and hope was found
(Oh, brighter day, we'll see a brighter day)
And now we're waking up to a brighter day

We are not there yet

So let it come, let it come in
Love is here and love is coming

Heaven is breaking open
Heaven is breaking open

Let it come, let it come in
Love is here and love is coming
'Cause love I swear has not been spoken
Heaven is breaking open
