Gotta give up, give up everything that I own
Better wake up, wake up to the suffering tone
Gotta give up, give up everything that I own
Better wake up, and hide out here alone

Seeing writing, writing all over the wall
Like a warning, warning us together we fall
Seeing writing, written all over the wall
Like a warning, you have no control

Get yours before we hit the blackout
All men will learn to fear the blackout
Jump off this ride before the blackout
Shoot those who might survive

Gotta give up, give up everything that I own
Better wake up, wake up to the suffering tone
Gotta give up, give up everything that I own
Better wake up, and hide out here alone

Call it panicking, I call this the end
Am I the only one here who's not with them
Look at all of these lifeless mannequins
You have no control

Get yours before we hit the blackout
All men will learn to fear the blackout
Jump off this ride before the blackout
Shoot those who might survive the blackout, blackout

Sweat like you want me to
Like you want me to
Sweat like you want me to
Sweat like you want me to
Like you want me to
Sweat like you want me to
Sweat like you want me to
Like you want me to
Sweat like you want me to
Sweat like you want me to
Like you want me to

Sweat like you want me to
You have no control

Get yours before we hit the blackout
All men will learn to fear the blackout
Jump off this ride before the blackout
Shoot those who might survive the blackout, blackout,
blackout, blackout
