

Hail The Villain "Mission Control"

Count down the days until the end of the world
We sleep, but the sky is falling
Bombs burst in air, they tear up the inside
Make no mistake, they don't care they...

Take my heart right from this chest
Take all and kill the rest
Take my heart from this chest, take all

Build them up to blow them off (mission control)
Build them up to blow them off (mission control)
Line us up to take the fall (mission control)
Blind enough to kill us all (mission control)

Far from the blast we hear the engines subside
Can't sleep 'cause the earth is burning
Push past the edge, we pledge only to die
Cross off the loss, they don't care they...

Take my heart right from this chest
Take all and kill the rest
Take my heart from this chest, take all

Build them up to blow them off (mission control)
Build them up to blow them off (mission control)
Line us up to take the fall (mission control)
Blind enough to kill us all (mission control)

Build them up to blow them off (mission control)
Build them up to blow them off (mission control)
Line us up to take the fall (mission control)
Blind enough to kill us all

We lift off, we crash
We lift off, we crash
We crash, we crash
We crash, we crash

Build them up to blow them off (mission control)
Build them up to blow them off (mission control)
Line us up to take the fall (mission control)

Blind enough to kill us all (mission control)

Kill us all, kill us all

Line us up to kill us all (mission control)

Kill us all, kill us all

Line us up to kill us all
