I'm so happy
We're moving every part that I've made it a love
I'm so happy
We're moving every part that I've made it a love

At this point I won't say, what I've heard what is untrue
But I wonder just how well, how will I see through her in you
Her in you

At this point I won't say, what I've heard what is untrue
But I wonder just how well, how will I see through her in
you

And once we all agree
And one night we run free
And once we all agree
And one night we run free

Oh, meeting changes people for me
And at this point I won't say, what I've heard what is untrue
But I wonder just how well, how will I see through her in
you
Her in you

untrue
But I wonder just how well, how will I see through her in
you

And once we all agree
And one night we run free

Oh, meeting changes people for me
Oh, meeting changes people for me
Nevermind what you've done to me
Nevermind what you've done to me
