You know how we've grown
Love without your every time.

Well everyone needs a right time

When I see the pictures of every life in the day they die,
It's your image burnt into my mind
And again I'd find
That it's worth the..
Why my love has write our time.

Our love come back in the middle of the night
Our love come back in the middle of the night
Our love come back in the middle of the night

Our love come back in the middle of the night
Our love come back in the middle of the night
Our love come back in the middle of the night
