My feet are on the ground, my hands pointed to the sky
My eyes focusing on the clock as the time passes by
I begin to wonder where you are, I know you're out there
And we'd make a perfect pair, I wish you knew I'd care

I wish I knew who you were!
Who you were, who you were, who you were
Our love would be so pure!
So pure, so pure, so pure
I always think of you every night
Every night, every night, every night
Because baby without you, there's no point in life

So baby, please tell me who you are
'Cause I need you the most more than anything
Without you, I'm so empty
And together we'd be neverending
So baby don't let go
Because I need you so
(need you so, need you so, need you so)
I wonder where you are (where you are)
I'd come in plane or car (plane or car)
We'd travel all over the world (all over the world)
You'd be my only girl (my only girl)
If there was a chance in Heaven
I'd broadcast my message on channel seven (channel seven)
Attention all radios (radios)
Sorry for disrupting your lame talk shows (talk shows)
One more mission to do (to do)
And that's to find a way to get to you (to you)
I'd travel in rain, snow, sleet or hail
And the outcome is for you to prevail
I'd cross any desert, mountain or ocean
And that's where I'll find you

I'm hoping

So baby, please tell me who you are
'Cause I need you the most more than anything

Without you, I'm so empty
And together we'd be neverending
So baby don't ever let go
(don't let go, don't let go, don't let go)
Because I need you so
(need you so, need you so, need you so)
If there was only a way to let you know
(let you know, let you know, let you know)
You run through my heart just like how blood flows
Like how blood flows
Like how blood flows
Like how blood flows
Like how blood flows
Like how blood flows
