Do you remember when we were kids
Cardboard boxes took us miles
Driving us past the 7 seas
With a handful of laugh and smiles
Take me back
Up and away
Cut me some slack
All I can do is pray

Take it back
Take it back
When we were young
Build a time machine
Sing a song unsung
Only thing it takes to get back to you
Walk around the world and come back to you

Give me one more shot because I won't miss
Give us one more chance at happiness
There's nothing in this world I want more than this
Right back, stamp closed, sealed with a kiss

Do you remember when we were young?
We would play at the playground.
Dig in the sand box
And share the treasures we found
Oh would you take me away, take me away, yeah.

Take it back
Take it back
When we were young
Build a time machine
Sing a song unsung
Only thing it takes to get back to you
Walk around the world and come back to you

Give me one more shot because I won't miss
Give us one more chance at happiness
There's nothing in this world I want more than this
Right back, stamp closed, sealed with a kiss

Take it back
Take it back
When we were young
Build a time machine
Sing a song unsung
Only thing it takes to get back to you
Walk around the world and come back to you

Give me one more shot because I won't miss
Give us one more chance at happiness
There's nothing in this world I want more than this
Right back, stamp closed, sealed with a kiss
