Verse 1

Woke up this morning
It's early, yeah, it's pouring
I see that you're not in bed
Makes me wonder, did you ever come home yet?

Everyday, I wonder
If things are undiscovered
Between you and me
'Cause I never seem to get you

Chorus:
I thought you were my everything
Yeah, I thought I had it all
But now you're just nothing
I'll just sit back and watch you fall
Watch you fall, yeah
Oh! Yeah...

Verse 2:
So you came home in the afternoon
And I just had to ask you why
Why you were late
Don't play games with me, I'm not a fool
Yeah, don't tell me your alibis, all the lies
No, it's not okay

Today, I'm leaving
Your excuses? I don't need 'em
Oh, I'm leaving with my dignity
Boys like you, oh, it's nothing new...

Chorus:
Thought you were my everything
I thought I had it all
But now you're just nothing
I'll just sit back and watch you fall
Watch you fall apart
Without me
It's all your fault, you broke my heart

And you just weren't my everything

Yeah, yeah, yeah
I thought you were, my everything
Oh, but you weren't...

Bridge:
You're telling me lies
Try to make me believe...
OH YEAH!!!
But not, I'm telling you goodbye
You just weren't the one for me...

Chorus:
Thought you were my everything
I thought I had it all
But now you're just nothing
I'll just sit back and watch you fall
Watch you fall apart
Without me
It's all your fault, you broke my heart
And you just weren't my everything

Yeah, you weren't...
No, no, no
I thought you were
I thought you were
I thought you were
I thought you were my everything...

My everything...yeah, yeah, yeah

Woke up this morning
Looking at the rain that's pouring...
