"Stupid child, you were just an accident.
Worthless child," that's what he says.
"A waste of time, you're never gonna make me proud.
And don't you cry or I'll give you something to cry about."

Don't take those words to heart,
Know that you are...

Lovable
Beautiful
Wonderfully made
A child of God
No matter what
The hurt inside of them might say.
So hold on to the truth,
You are lovable
You are lovable

Careless words, scars no one can see.
How they hurt, and cut you so deep.
But there are words with the power to bring life.
Hear them now, you're treasure in Heaven's eyes.

So take these words to heart,
Know that you are...

Lovable
Beautiful
Wonderfully made
A child of God
No matter what
The hurt inside of them might say.
So hold on to the truth,
You are lovable

Words can break,
Words can build,
Be filled with grace,
Or make tears spill
No we can't forget we are so delicate

Fathers to mothers and brothers and daughters
What do you choose?
Is it salt or fresh water?
So let the words of my mouth
Never leave any doubt that you are...

Lovable,
A child of God
No matter what
The hurt inside of them might say.

Lovable
Beautiful
Wonderfully made
A child of God
No matter what
The hurt inside of them might say.
So hold on to the truth,
You are lovable
You are lovable
