I must be some kind of monster baby
I want it all and it's now or never
I'm holding out for the real thing baby
Or did you mean it when you said forever

It's just a little bit
I'm getting sick of it
You never let me feel

It's just a little bit
I'm getting sick of it
I wanted something real

Just get me something real
Just get me something real

I never knew I could want to baby
I never thought that I could give you reason
I'm waiting here for the real thing baby
You know I need it and it's now or never

It's just a little bit
I'm getting sick of it
You never let me feel

It's just a little bit
I'm getting sick of it
I wanted something real

Just get me something real

Don't know if I can take this
I don't know if I hate this
Don't know if I can say this
You know you made me hate this

It's just a little bit
I'm getting sick of it
I wanted something real

It's just a little bit
I'm getting sick of it

You never let me feel

It's just a little bit
I'm getting sick of it
I wanted something real

It's just a little bit
Just get me something real
I'm getting sick of it
Just get me something real
