I cant remember the last time that we kissed goodbye
All of our "i love yous" were just not enough to survive
Something your eyes never told me
But it is all only now too plain to see
Billion disguise, when you hold me, and im free

I've been thinking and here's what ive gone to conclude Sometimes the distance is more than two people can use
But how could i have known girl?
That it was time and not space you would need
Darling tonight, i could hold you, and you would know
But would you believe? That...

Theres a light in your eyes
I use to see
There's a place in your heart
Where i use to be
Was i wrong to assume
That you were waiting for me?
There's a light in your eyes
Did you leave that light burning for me?

Calls, and phone calls and photographs
Pictures of you
Constant reminder of all the things you did use to do
Is there a chance
In hell or heaven
Is there still something here to belong
Or do you just pick up the pieces after they fall
But after all

Theres a light in your eyes
I use to see
There's a place in your heart
Where i use to be
Was i wrong to assume
That you were waiting for me?
There's a light in your eyes
Did you leave that light burning for me?

Should i keep on waiting?

Or does love keep on fading away (fading away)

Its been awhile since ive seen you
So how have you been?
Did you get my letter i wrote you
That i did not send
I tried to call your number
But the voices i heard on the phone
I recognize
But you told me the number was wrong

There's a light in my eyes
Its to bright to see
And a pain in my heart
Where you use to be
See i was wrong to assume
That you were waiting here for me
There's a light in your eyes
Did you leave that light burning for me?
