Yeah, my baby left me this morning
And I don't care now
I don't care what the people say

Yeah, my baby left me this morning
And I don't care now
I don't care what the people say

Yeah, I did everything that I could, everything I could Lord knows I did everything I could
Tried to satisfy her worried mind

Well, you know she was Well, you know she was nothing but trouble, trouble
You know she was nothing but trouble, trouble

She keep me worried all the time, she keep me worried all the time
Oh, God knows, God knows her movements
God knows her movements are killin' me

Yeah, my baby stayed out all night long, all night long
Keep me worried all the time, that's it
Yeah, my baby stayed out all night long, all night long
She keep me worried all the time

Yeah, I lay down last night, I was thinkin'
I lay down last night, I was thinkin'
Must I kill that woman? Must I kill that woman?

Oh, Lord, I get down on my knees
They tell me God forgivin'
They tell me God forgivin' everything you do
But I don't care what the people say

I'm gonna kill that woman
I'm gonna kill that woman, God knows
I'm gonna get down on my knees
