Last night, I lay trembling
The moon, it was low
It was the end of our love
Of misery and woe

Then suddenly above me
Her face buried in light
Came a vision of beauty
All covered in white

Now the bell-tower is ringing
And the moon has stole past
Oh Lucy, can you hear me?
Wherever you rest

I'll love her forever
I'll love her for all time
I'll love her till the stars
Fall down from the sky

Now the bell-tower is ringing
And I shake on the floor
Oh Lucy, can you hear me?
When I call and I call

Now the bell-tower is ringing
And the moon, it is high
Oh Lucy, can you hear me?
When I cry and I cry, and I cry
