Through the wind swept coastal trees
Where the dead come rising from the sea
With a teddy bear clamped between her knees
She says, "Where can my lover man be?"
Well, I'm down here babe with the Eskimos
With the polar bears and the Arctic snow
With a party of penguins and who do not know
How I can get back to thee

Well I'm gonna ask you, babe
Hey! ho
Oh baby don't you go
Hey! Ho
Oh no no no
Hey! Ho
Oh baby baby, don't you go
All supernatural on me
Supernaturally

Once I was your hearts desire
Now I am the ape hunkered by the fire
All with my knuckles draggin' through the mire
You float by so majestically
You're my north, my south, my east, my west
Oh well you all other girl that I love best
Oh with an army of tanks bursting from your chest
I wave my little white flag at thee

Well can you see it, babe?
Hey! Ho
Oh baby don't you go
Hey! Ho
Oh no no no
Hey! Ho
Oh baby, don't you go
All supernatural on me
Supernaturally

Now I've turned the mirrors to wall
And I've emptied out the peopled halls
And I've nailed shut the windows and I've locked the

There is no escape, you see
And I chase you up and down the stairs
Where under tables and over chairs
Well I reach out and I touch your hair
When it cuts me like a knife

For there is always something
You've gotta do
Hey! Ho
Oh baby don't go
Hey! Ho
Well baby, no no no
Hey! Ho
Oh don't you go
All supernatural on me
Supernaturally

Hey! Ho
Hey! Ho
Hey! Ho
