"There Is a Town"

There is a town where I was born
Far, far away, across the sea
And in that town, oh, where I was born
I would dream, that one day I would leave and cross the sea

And so it goes and so it seems
That God lives only in our dreams
In our dreams, oh, oh, oh

And now I live in this town
I walk these dark streets
Up and down, up and down under a dark sky
And I dream that one day I'll go back home

And so it goes and so it seems
That God lives only in our dreams
In our dreams, oh
