I got friends with serious problems
I got friends on the edge and wobblin'
I'd like to help, but I got my own stuff right now

I got friends who drink too much
I got friends who do some drugs
I do some too, but I think I know when to stop

I don't know where we're all goin'
I can't see what the future's showin'
I wish I could, but all I see is haze right now

I got friends dancin' with Satan
I got friends whose minds are wastin'
We're not that bad, we're just boys and girls with time to use

We're your friends. We're your sons and daughters
We're like ghosts. Do you feel haunted
We might be real, if we could just fit in somehow

I don't know where we're all goin'

I can't see what the future's showin'
I wish I could, but all I see is haze right now

We all feel invisible
And we think we're indestructible
That's how we live, we crash and burn where no one sees

All my friends play their music loud
All my friends like to yell and shout
We're not that deaf, maybe we got some things to say

I don't know where we're all goin'
I can't see what the future's showin'
I wish I could, but all I see is haze right now

I don't know where we're all goin'
I can't see what the future's showin'
I wish I could, but all I see is haze right now
