See the little cloud up in the sky
It's a good good day today
See the little cloud pass on by
It's a good good day today

Mary comes now, let Mary be
Can you see her down on the street?
Mary's laughing 'cause Mary sees
That she's a wearin' that dress for me

There can be times, yeah
When no things come together, yeah
Under a clear sky and you can believe, yeah
You hold your breath for this moment, yeah

But do not breathe for this day alone
Is a good day, yes I know
It's a good day, yeah I know
Today

Hear her feet skipping up the stairs
It's a good good day today
She is the answer to all of my prayers
It's a good good day today

Mary comes now, she don't knock
'Cause she's runnin' on her own little clock
Mary's laughing 'cause Mary knows
That this day was meant for us

And Mary full knows, yeah
And any foresees that the future, yeah
Is a down on its knees

And are all crying and a reelin'
And tears roll down their cheeks
'Cause I can believe in the one
That is standing in front of me

On this day, don't you know
Is a good day, yes I know
It's a good day, I told you so

Today

See her breasts how they rise and fall
It's a good good day today
And she knows I've used that line before
It's a good good day today

Mary's laughing, she don't mind
'Cause she knows she's one of a kind
Mary's laughing, just to me
Standing next to me

And April knows, yeah
That the wind always blows
Something to someone, yeah
Once in a while

So let it rain, let it fall
Let the wind, oh, through your door
'Cause right now for this moment
For ever me standing next to her

On this day, which I know
Is a good day, yeah I know
Oh, it's a good day, I told you so
Today
