One more land gone
One more land gone
One more land...

One more land gone
One more land gone
One more land is gone...

The Good Hun rode into the fields
He is Attila, he has a great big axe
Thinkin' bout movin' westwards
He's making invasion plans
Against the Romans, and against the Belgians

Yet he conquered the Ostragoths
And defeated the Visigoths
But it's Pope Leo, he says, is a spoil-sport man

The Good Hun
The Good Hun
The Good Hun etc...
