Come in, babe
Across these purple fields
The sun has sunk behind you
Across these purple fields
That idiot-boy in the corner
Is speaking deviated truths
Come on, admit it, babe
It's a wonderful life
If you can find it
If you can find it
If you can find it
It's a wonderful life that you bring
Ooh it's a wonderful thing

Speak our secret into your hands
And hold it in between
Plunge your hands into the water
And drown it in the sea
There will be nothing between us, baby
But the air that we breathe
Don't cry
It's a wonderful, wonderful life
If you can find it
If you can find it
If you can find it
It's a wonderful life that you bring
It's a wonderful, wonderful thing

We can build our dungeons in the air
And sit and cry the blues

We can stomp across this world
With nails hammered through our shoes
We can join that troubled chorus
Who criticise and accuse
It don't matter much
We got nothing much to lose
But this wonderful life
If you can find it
And when you find it
And when you find it
It's a wonderful life that you bring

It's a wonderful, wonderful, wonderful thing

Sometimes our secrets are all we've got

With our lives we must defend

Sometimes the air between us, babe

Is unbearably thin

Sometimes it's wise to lay down your gloves

And just give in

Come in, come in

Come in, come in

To this wonderful life

If you can find it

And if you find it

It's a wonderful life that you bring

It's a wonderful, wonderful thing

It's a wonderful life

It's a wonderful life
