Some regular
So playing
See I'm a regular dude
Only differences I can rap better than you
We both got kids so we settle disputes
Only differences

See me and you fellow,
One more alike that you understand
Picture to my sons with an calculated under head
Motion 'cause I know that if I gave em my all
The little man never play 'cause if he afraid of the ball
I'm just a normal company man wage under
Who happens to write the illest bad page turners
I wanna wave runner sure I wanna Harley
Me I just settle for simply rocking the party
I met the age with the Christ... mid life
Guide by convertibles and stumble in midnight
See I got it out my twenties isn't it funny
I already seen the world and I toured most of the country
I'm like you I need the money for the more
Get in the food and the weddings and the future college courses
Of course this is life and if I said it is true
Sick of good thing I can rap better than you

Hook:

Yeah I'm just a regular dude,
Only differences I can rap better than you
We both got kids so we settle disputes
Only differences I can rap better than you
Both rival on the highway and settle the cruise
Only differences I can rap better than you
See I'm a regular dude, only differences I can... (rap better than you)

In a world you can rap the player field will be level
Game of entertainment I'm not especially special
Every day I will low the loan the songs and write songs about that

Every time you wrote the check you most certainly bounce back
Every man will answer battle certain that they take the cash
Just in time to... to show up and open it they take it back
Every average joke it take a group of friends surround
And make it classic album to get love in the underground
Each and every mail will get caused the... like the bill
Would feel up too fast and all I hear is not tonight
Man shout raps like the gather fix my real breaks
Anybody chock it up the simple hear say
Luckily that world is far away and flip the pit
Mix the plix as it is you got ears to listen with
We both shot cause it better than...
Only differences I rap better than you

[Hook:]

It goes one for the mortgage
2 for vacation days
3 for the songs that you local color station plays
4 for my war shop enough to split a raiser play
5 for the listen up play that you take away
If we both this casual
Both hate kacky pants,
Both pose watching those commercials with the cashing dance
Both fall victim to an avalanche of popping stands
Both just play no play not a glance
And guess what man child is under my skin
And luckily my people say they want it again
My pen running over time I sin it to the pencil
And best believe you when I see your real potential
When you greed out say it when you speak out
Feel free to live through the method in my free style
Whether I'm in car pool and seven cruise
I still think that I'm a regular dude
