There's so many things I haven't seen yet I sit and analyze the world on my swing set i see that there's people filled with hate but I can't hold on to the darkness at day break everyday i see the sun rise the same way and everyday i see the clouds make funny shapes some people seem ready to leave before they came like they forgot the reasons why we sing in the rain i know if you play hard your clothes get stained i know if you fall down you might feel pain and i know if you reach out for help when your strayed it's always easy to find your way i close my eyes and i can see a brighter day i close my eyes and pray

i close my eyes and i can see a brighter day i close my eyes and i pray here's a question - why do we stop dreaming? why would we grow up to believe in not believing? why would i give up - or ever wanna stop this when i know together there's nothing we can't accomplish you've got a reason to live filled with purpose loosin hope and giving up's something that only hurts us let your light be one that others can see as you grow into the person you were created to be

I know if you play hard your clothes get stained I know if you fall down I might feel pain but I know if i reach out for help when you're strayed it's always easy to find your way
i close my eyes and i can see a brighter day
i close my eyes and pray
i close my eyes and i can see a brighter day
i close my eyes and i pray

EXTRA

I dedicate this song to all my Bboys and Bgirls

You should totally PRAY!
Wanna know a secret?
I PRAY every time I even step in a room I can't give you 1000 examples why, BUT, it seems to work out for me pretty good :)
