Standing there in the window
Winding your hair
With a face of an angel
I can't help but stare

We're getting closer everyday
No more boundaries on our way
Just you and me together
As one we will stay

We are joined at the heart
All alone in the dark
As the midnight turns to blue
I'll be meltin' into you
Meltin' into you

I walk the streets on the city
People hustling by
I've got a smile on my face
And a gleam in mine

'Cause when is crazy day's true
I'll be coming home to you
And I know you'll be there waiting for me
With a love so true

We are joined at the heart
All alone in the dark
As the midnight turns to blue
I'll be meltin' into you
Meltin' into you

Can't seem to get you off my mind
Love like all just what to find
Just wanna run and split to you
Soon I'll be walking through that door
And I'll be meltin' into you
Only you
Say that you love me too

Now I know where I'm going
'Cause my heart's in control

We are one spirit
Body and soul

Every night and every day
I close my eyes and pray
That this will last forever
And we'll always feel this way

We are joined at the heart
All alone in the dark
As the midnight turns to blue
I'll be meltin'
Meltin' into you

I know that you love me too

Meltin' into you

I'll keep meltin'
Meltin' into you

I'll keep meltin' and meltin' and meltin'
Meltin' right into you

Say that you love me too
