Things she said been making them feel afraid
That they're gonna be let down
But if they knew what she were capable of
I know they'd want her around

That's why she gotta give it
A little bit of confidence
And just believe in
What she do

I appreciate her modesty
It's positive I know it's true
But when her modesty is talking negatively
Everybody feels negative too

That's why she gotta give it
A little bit of confidence
And just believe in
What she do

We got to try just a little bit harder
And let it shine just a little bit brighter
We got to walk just a little bit taller
'Cause I can feel the sound and it's bringing me down

Ain't nobody want you preaching to them
So we probably shouldn't be talking this way
It's so hard to communicate these things
I know these things are even harder to change

That's why she gotta give it
A little bit of confidence
And just believe in
What she do

We got to try just a little bit harder
And let it shine just a little bit brighter
We got to walk just a little bit taller
Cause I can feel the sound

We got to try just a little bit harder

And let it shine just a little bit brighter
We got to walk just a little bit taller
Cause I can feel the sound and it's bringing me down
