Oh Manon, the day you were born
Was the one of, the one of the sundog
Oh Manon, in the ring of the fire
You shake everyone who wants to own you
You make them suffer, like you have suffered
Oh Manon, you're a hunger
You don't have the time to think

Manon, Manon (x2)

Oh Manon, the child of the desert
Oh the child of, the child of the sundog
Oh it's tattooed on your heart, the twin sun
But you wear them out
You erupt, you break out
You're an arrow leaping from a bow
Manon, Manon, you're a hunger
You have not been a child in a long time
(Oh Manon)

Manon, Manon (x2)

Manon, Manon (x2)

You're the revolution, Manon
You're the revolution, Manon

Is this how you do, this is -
This is how you rule
This is how you do, Manon

I dream of you, Manon
This is how you break my heart, Manon
