Fine
is how I'm feeling feeling fine I am today at least my doctor tells me so unsettling thoughts he said are natural so take these pill they'll make you better they'll make you fade away

something's come up
and i think that I'm in love welcome to maniac love

tend to think about not nothing more than you cause you left me all but nothing yea you left me all with one unsettling thoughts he said our natural so do what you can to kill the feeling what you can to self-restrain and subdue

Spite is what I'm feeling feeling spite is what I am the bastards in white cannot know your number is changing but im following your smell I know you want me, I know you fucking do

what you can to self-restrain and subdue

(solo Zawistowski)

hell is what I'm feeling breathing fire, smoke, and ash but it's not nothing I can't handle electro therapy it only makes me twitch but I'm getting better and I'll be out of here soon

and i think that I'm in love
welcome to maniac
