Oh

You walk up Rue des Mises
Turn right at the trees

There's a gate you will wait you will see

A house of luxuries
Love and reveries
Now you know why you'll stay
when you're

Chez Madame Louise
The finest ladies if you please
Again and again
You won't know how to leave
When you're chez Madame Louise

Well

It's only half past one
You feel a little numb

Betsie tells you to stay if you want
Have a little rum
Maybe a little fun
Now you know why you'll stay
When you're

Chez Madame Louise
The finest ladies if you please
Again and again
You won't know how to leave

When you're chez Madame Louise
