Don't wake me up
For I know now the price has gone up
You have given too much to much
And I'd like for you to get it all back

The night time has left us they say
But I'll always remember your face
Forgiving for what I might say Understanding for what I might take

And I was surprised to find you
living off of words
Telling me what needed to be heard
So you took time and tried to live inside a world
That you don't understand
The morning has come by mistake
And it took you away for A day,
There's so little left I'd want to say
So I'll go back to the moment you gave

And I was surprised to find you
living off of words
Telling me what needed to be heard
So you took time and tried to live inside a world
That you don't understand
